Q 1 Read the following passage and answer the questions

Every other night, Chandu requested his mother to sing him to sleep. He always had the best dreams when he fell asleep listening to mother's soft and sweet hums. Last night in his dream, he was flying.

First, he flew into a garden. He saw a pretty butterfly there. When he flew a bit higher, he saw a pair of sparrows. Then Chandu soared even higher. He met an eagle.

Chandu kept flying higher and higher. Soon, he was flying so high that he came upto an aeroplane. He waved at the passengers. Chandu climbed even higher than before. He passed by a speeding rocket.

Still Chandu was flying higher and higher. Now the stars were twinkling all around. They were smiling at Chandu, as though he was one of them. But suddenly, the stars began to wobble and shake.

It was mother, shaking Chandu awake. "Good Morning, how are you?" He hugged her hard and said, "Oh, now I feel better than ever before!"
